Description

Christopher Burnett is a critically acclaimed alto saxophonist, educator, arts industry business leader, and composer who began his professional career with military jazz bands "going pro" directly upon graduating high school at 18 years old. Over the course of his career, Mr. Burnett has performed professionally around the world, recorded noteworthy albums as a leader, and has taught at the college-level. Mr. Burnett is the Chief, Executive Officer and also co-directs the Burnett Music Foundation, a tax-exempt nonprofit organization whose programs include the Artists Recording Collective, Bird Boot Camp, Jazz Artistry Now, and Kansas City Area Youth Jazz.

Executive Director Profile: Success-driven, visionary, and highly committed professional equipped with broad background in providing top-notch leadership and services within nonprofit, military, and corporate organizations; complemented with expertise in business startup, business development, and community outreach.
